I destroy more insects than YieldGard VT Triple™.

I protect your high-yielding corn hybrids.

I do it all from this seed.

I am HERCULEX® XTRA Insect Protection. I shield your high-yielding corn hybrids against a broader spectrum of destructive pests than YieldGard VT Triple. You can count on me to combine high-yielding genetics with the only in-plant insect protection against corn rootworm, European corn borer, western bean cutworm and black cutworm. And I give you multiple herbicide options. All of my hybrids contain the LibertyLink® trait and many are available as a Quad-Stack™ with Roundup Ready® Corn 2 technology.

I am HERCULEX XTRA. I was developed by Dow AgroSciences for superior protection and can be found in high-yielding hybrids from more than 160 seed companies.
