

How do you see the future of your crop?

Want a hot investment tip? Plant soybean seeds treated with a CruiserMaxx™ Beans brand product. It's a seed treatment that protects against insects and disease for a clear performance advantage. Beans have improved vigor, canopy quicker and can better handle early season stresses. Which all leads to potentially higher yields and a solid return on your investment. Visit cruisersoybeans.com and give your beans The power to perform.™
